All power tools and equipment used on this site must be tested tagged safe for use in accordance with AS3760 service testing and inspection of electrical equipment. Electrical Power Tools and Equipment Inc. The electrical articles have not been tested by a qualified electrical worker and have not been proved to be electrically safe. General advice on how to use secondhand electrical power tools and equipment including electrical leads safely. General safe use advice for electrical power tools and equipment etc. This advice is not intended to replace specific manufacturers information but can be used as a general guide. This advice does not cater for young children or people who are physically weak. You are urged to Use the power tool only for its intended purpose. If the power tool is for indoor use only, do not use outdoors. Do not immerse the power tool in water unless it is designed for this purpose. Keep hands, fingers, feet, toes and hair away from dangerous moving parts, cutting blades and the like. Do not use electrical power tools in the rain. Make sure you have dry hands when operating an electrical power tool. Do not use a damaged power tool. A power tool may not be intended for use by children or people with an illness or disability without supervision. Young children should not be allowed to play with the power tool. Some power tools require special precautions for installation or user maintenance or both. The plug must be removed from the socketoutlet before any cleaning or maintenance is done. Do not place cord extension sockets or portable power outlet boards where they may be splashed or where moisture may get in. Ensure ventilation holes or outlets are not blocked or partially obstructed. If a fixed power tool does not have a supply cord and plug or other means for disconnection from the supply, a means for disconnection must be incorporated into the fixed wiring according to the Wiring Rules.

If the supply cord or plug is damaged The manufacturer or its service agent or a similarly qualified person must replace the cord to prevent an accident. Power tools with specially prepared cords must be replaced by a special cord or assembly available from the manufacturer or its service agent. Other power tools that have a supply cord that cannot be replaced, should be scrapped. The power tool should be maintained in order to ensure a long, useful life and to protect the operator against electric shock or mechanical mishaps. A safety switch can enhance electrical safety when using electrical power tools. These Assets are Used. Description, Photos and Condition Reports if any Should Be Used as a Guide Only. Bids on assets in this sale should be made based on your own assessment of the goods. GraysOnline do not test auction items.
